Dear Prentiss:

I plan to take an Amtrak morning train from Philadelphia to DC on September 7th. After check in the hotel (Marriott Courtyard on 1325 2nd Street NE) I will take Metro or other public transportation to your API Office (1220 L Street NW). The Marriott Courtyard is a block away from a Red Line Metro Station. Any suggestion for coming to your office from there by Metro?

I am on the newly formed OUST National Biofuels Team that supports our national effort and collectively serves as a resource for all ten EPA Regions and Headquarters about UST issues associated with biofuels and other alternative fuels. Thank you for providing me with some literature and a reference list on the compatibility of UST infrastructure with blended ethanol.

Looking forward to meeting with you soon. My cell phone number is [REDACTED] in case you need it when I am in transit. Thanks.
Jack

Dear Prentiss:

I just left a voice mail on your phone.
I'll be in DC on Sept 7th. I wonder if you will be in office that morning. Would it be a good time to pay you a visit, say around 11 am?

Thanks. Jack
